"Robert L. Wagner served as the opening keynote speaker for our 3rd Annual Bevo Boot Camp through the University of Texas Outreach program in Dallas. There, Wagner provided a superb motivational speech that uplifted the students and got them engaged for the camp. His imagery, expressions, and stories were enough to capture the attention of the young audience, yet grounded in the Word of God and suitable enough to captivate audiences of all ages. I highly recommend Robert Wagner for any type of speaking engagement, whether it be to train leaders and students, or teach the Word of God to anyone."
